One night I went to sleep and had a very weird Dream. It went like this my friend took me to school early which meant I have to wait for the Janitor to open the door for me. J, my friend dropped me off at 6:52 School doesn't start until 8:00. I tried the door to go in anyway, and it was open so I went in. I started down the hall to wait for my next class. When out of nowhere a huge Backpack was right in front of me! I tried to go around it but it wouldn't let me. I started to Back up, Because you and I know Backpacks can't move. That's what I thought too, But It started to move I was getting scared! It could slither down the hall very slowly so I thought I could out run it. I started running and the Backpack grew legs, arms, a head with a mouth, eyes, ears and Big hair! I started to run and pull out my cell phone called 911 to get the police But Before I could the Backpack took it and crushed it!

I don't know what happened after that but I don't think I want to know either! It was a horrible dream I woke up from the phone ringing my friend J said she had to pick me up early. I hope dreams don't come true!

Score Point: 4

This response reflects proficiency in narrative writing in this high score point "4." The response is adequately organized through the use of an introduction, transitional phrases, and a conclusion. The writer employs varied syntax and language facility to illustrate key ideas (you and I know backpacks can't move, it could slither down the hallway slowly, and I don't know what happened after that but I don't think I want to know either). There are several errors in mechanics, usage, and sentence structure. Additionally, further development is required for a higher score.
